This is a trappy juvenile maiden. Both Undeclared and African Candy put in solid efforts in the trial they raced in against each other and look the ones to follow here. The latter travelled strongly while the former showed good late headway. Among the rest, Gallant Blade might be worth giving another chance.

After what was a heroic effort last start, Tolmount is preferred once again with a much better draw to help. He set a very good gallop over a mile last time so the drop in trip should be taken with stride. Tawalla made an encouraging comeback at Abu Dhabi and is the chief threat to the selection ahead of King's Fountain.

Killer Collect has obvious claims, but he was ruled out of the UAE Derby due to a setback and needed his first run last year so could be vulnerable. The two Michael Costa runners form a solid opposition with Gabooll preferred on his course victory from two weeks ago. Uruguayan import Moonshiner can pick up the pieces late on; and may surprise the protagonists if the pace is furious early.

DUBAI CREEK MILE

Godolphin Mile runner-up from last season, Walk Of Stars (nap) is expected to land his maiden local victory here. In a small field, he should be able to get into a handy spot from the get-go and should be hard to beat. Doug Watson's newcomer Atif put up bold performances in his native Argentina and he can prove effective here if translating some of that form with the low draw to assist. Desert Wisdom has place claims.

It was a pretty impressive return by Shamikh two weeks ago after a near two-year layoff when he was outpaced initially but rallied strongly late. He probably needed the run and is likely to be better off with this extra distance. Ex-Godolphin trainees usually do well with Bhupat Seemar so Dubawi gelding Al Nafir is feared with Rock Walk another one to consider as he drops in grade.

This looks like a race between the two trial winners Arigatou Gozaimasu and Ruby Hamilton. Both looked good prospects when winning their respective trials, but the former is favored as she has drawn the rail. Several of these will be trying to push forward which could catch Doug Watson's filly wide. Flama Sunshine is the pick of the rest. (Suleiman Altaf)
