AL MAKTOUM CHALLENGE (ROUND 1)SPONSORED BY: EMAAR

Hard to go against two-time Kahayla Classic placed BARAKKA (NB) who should find this race easy pickings on ratings. Najm Al Wathba has drawn well and can do the chasing with Mubeed another one to consider based on his demolishing job at Sharjah the other day. Alarqam has been a disappointment all season but maybe the switch back to dirt can reignite his form.

This is a trappy contest. The form of this race from last year is very much at the fore with Ponntos and Bilhayl in. The former has been dismissed on the fact because he carries a penalty while the latter needs to prove last season was no fluke. That said, Simon and Ed Crisford's COVER UP is taken a chance with given he fared very well in some hugely heritage handicaps in the UK over the summer. Topper Bill is an improver from last season and he is far from a finished article so merits respect for the in-form yard.

With Arigatou Gozaimasu drawn wide, there is a strong possibility that FLAMA SUNSHINE can overturn the form. The Bhupat Seemar filly has bundles of early speed and she can capitalize on that early. The only way to beat the former is to be ahead of her in the early part of the race and certainly, with five runners for Seemar, he has the tactical edge in this race. Ruby Hamilton lacks early speed, but she will be staying on and can grab a piece of the pie.

GHALY reminds of Bin Battuta, who won in similar fashion for Saeed bin Suroor at the Carnival first up after more than a year's layoff. Saeed bin Suroor rarely gets it wrong with his returning horses and this one has shown a lot of speed in his races. Movie Maker has drawn better than his stablemate, but he is better over softer ground. San Donato will be picking up the pieces late.

This looks between the trio of MESHTRI, Clapton and Artorius. The selection fended off a good horse in Walk Of Stars in the Dubai Creek Mile and could be repeating the same from gate one. Clapton should have improved over the summer and remains a solid threat albeit he might be outpaced early over a mile. Horses like Artorius generally need a run so is best watched at this stage.

The 2024 UAE Derby runner-up AUTO BAHN looks set to finally open his UAE account after a series of second-place efforts last campaign. He has drawn the plum draw in one and should be hard to catch. Walk Of Stars can fulfill the chasing honors again with Military Law looking a viable option to complete the podium, although Local Dynasty with the solid dirt pedigree is also appealing.

Royal Power is of obvious interest but one should not shirk WILD CRUSADE yet. The former Godolphin trainee was off the track for nearly two years before his start at Meydan three weeks ago. He is bound to build on that and if he lurks anywhere close to his peak, this race is well within his grasp. Intricacy looks best of the rest.

EMAAR DOWNTOWN DUBAI

This could finally be Falcon Of Arabia's time to shine as he slides back into handicap company. He already has two creditable runs under his belt, and this looks the perfect set-up for him. However, he is in a place trap and so one can look elsewhere. Mr Kafoo is gradually coming back to form, and it would not be a surprise to see him win. Freedom Fighter needed his last run, and he should be competitive from the inside gate, but it is MESHAKEL that appeals most on his third run of the season as he shown similar improvement in the past. (Suleiman Altaf)
