

DUBAI WORLD CUP

28 MARCH 2026, MEYDAN RACECOURSE

RACE PROGRAMME

WELCOME MESSAGE

It is my great pleasure to welcome racing fans and industry professionals to the landmark 30th edition of the Dubai World Cup. Set against the iconic backdrop of Meydan Racecourse, this year's event continues the proud legacy of one of Dubai's most prestigious and celebrated sporting occasions.

When we founded the Dubai World Cup in 1996, our vision was to establish Dubai as a global centre for horseracing, where the finest horses, jockeys and trainers could compete on the world stage. Three decades on, that vision has been realised, with Dubai playing a central role in the continued growth and internationalisation of the sport.

We are delighted to welcome competitors from across the globe to Meydan once again. The quality and diversity of this year's field reflect the enduring strength of international racing and the spirit of excellence that defines this event.

Beyond competition, the Dubai World Cup represents unity, bringing together nations, cultures and communities through a shared passion for horseracing. This global participation is a testament to the sport's universal appeal and to Dubai's position at the heart of its future.

We extend our sincere thanks to the owners, trainers and jockeys for their commitment and dedication, and to our partners, sponsors and organising teams for their continued support in delivering an exceptional event. To our guests here at Meydan and those watching from around the world, your enthusiasm and passion are what make this occasion truly special.

With every race, we celebrate the enduring values of horseracing — courage, determination, and excellence — as well as the rich heritage that continues to inspire future generations.

2025 Winner: FIRST CLASSS (US) - Doug Watson - Time: 2:12:65 - Connor Beasley

RACE SPOTLIGHT: The old boy First Class chases a record-tying third Dubai Kahayla Classic and he confirmed his well-being with a scintillating victory in the Obaiya Arabian Classic last month in Riyadh. Previously, however, he was beaten into a clear second by YAS Racing's rising star MURAAD, who has been a revelation since switching to the dirt, landing both the First and Second Rounds of the Al Maktoum Challenge. He has been kept fresh for this assignment and could prove a different class altogether. Chasing First Class in Riyadh were Vizhir and Moshrif, second and fourth, respectively. The last-named was checked for a run in the closing stages which may have cost him a place or two while the former is a course winner as he landed the Madjani Stakes at the start of the season. Round 3 scorer Falaah's unlucky run with the draw continues having landed berth 15 here but the swift tempo of the race should suit him and the same applies to AA Lahab who will contest in new owner's colours for the first time. The seven-year-old is clearly very talented and it should come as no surprise should he go close.

2025 Winner: RAGING TORRENT (USA) - Doug O'Neill - Time: 1:36:69 - Lanfranco Dettori

RACE SPOTLIGHT: Six in the race from 12 runners for Bhupat Seemar gives him an obvious upper hand. The first string is clearly Commissioner King who has not finished out of the top two this season and was a facile winner of the G3 Burj Nahaar on Super Saturday posting a very fast time. Plus, he has landed the plum draw In one. But he surely will not be the only one chasing the lead as a whole host of horses, including his stable mates Zandvoort, World Record and Diamond Dealer also like to stay in the vanguard early. Plus the presence of the American Banishing is sure to make the early tempo lightning quick. That could potentially aid something like Generous Tipper and MENDELSSOHN BAY who are a bit more versatile in this regard. The last-named himself has won two Stakes races during the Carnival and could potentially have the box seat from stall two. Not to mention that his form book looks eerily similar to that of former stablemate Secret Ambition when he won It in 2021. James Doyle has opted for G3 Jebel Ali Mile scorer David Of Athens from the Wathnan trio while stablemate Generous Tipper exists a solid fourth In the Al Maktoum Classic and will relish the strong tempo in the race.

2025 Winner: DUBAI FUTURE (GB) - Saeed bin Suroor - Time: 3:21:50 - Silvestre De Sousa

RACE SPOTLIGHT: Irish trainer Joseph O'Brien sends two. AL RIFFA is the pick of stable jockey Dyland McMonagle for obvious reasons: a four-length winner of the G1 Irish St. Leger and fourth in the Hong Kong vase since. His stablemate Sons And Lovers brings a slightly less flashy profile albeit a thoroughly consistent performer at this level including taking the Red Sea Turf Handicap in Riyadh latest. On that day, he had both Epic Poet and Burdett Road behind him. Caballo De Mar is one of three G1 winners in the race having won the Prix Du Cadran in October last year. He has steadily progressed from being a handicapper to being a formidable stayer. Fairy Glen has taken the rather unconventional pathway to this race having won the Balanchine during the Carnival over 1800m but she's been competing in staying races all along. Sunway and Al Nayyir have solely campaigned in Dubai this winter and they should be primed for their runs here. Last year's winner Dubai Future has been kept fresh given he's a 10-year-old but there are fewer trainers than Saeed bin Suroor who know how to get one ready off a hiatus.

2025 Winner: ADMIRE DAYTONA (JPN) - Yukihiro Kato - Time: 1:59:13 - Christophe Lemaire

RACE SPOTLIGHT: A very competitive renewal of the UAE Derby. Bhupat Seemar sends two. SIX SPEED has won three in a row at Meydan including a dominant victory in the UAE 2000 Guineas. Mickael Barzalona retains the ride, and one would imagine front-running from stall two would be the go-to strategy. Stablemate Salloom brings immense potential, easily winning over a mile on debut. This trip should be absolutely within his compass, and he looks a versatile type placement-wise. Two runners for Godolphin including the unbeaten Pyromancer from Japan and dual Meydan winner Devon Island provide them with a winning chance. Either one could get the job done.

2025 Winner: BELIEVING (IRE) - George Boughey - Time: 1:07:77 - William Buick

RACE SPOTLIGHT: The rematch between Lazzat and REEF RUNNER is the story of the Al Quoz Sprint this year. The two were head-to-head in the 1351 Turf Sprint in Riyadh last month and they are set for round two here. Lazzat is already a highly decorated G1-winning sprinter, and one could argue he was a bit unlucky in Riyadh being posted wide. Reef Runner also looks equally talented and took the step up in trip in full stride. The straight 1200m at Meydan can sometimes favor those with a bit more stamina at the end. Native Approach relished the drop to sprinting on Super Saturday springing a huge upset in the process. French sprinters Rayevka and Monteille who were behind Native Approach, renew their rivalry with the score currently 2-0 in favor of Rayevka. The prep run on Super Saturday should have done a world of good for them and they are expected to be competitive. Unbeaten at Meydan, Northern Champion gets a handy weight-for-age allowance and he merits respect.

2025 Winner: DARK SAFFRON (USA) - Ahmad bin Harmash - Time: 1:11:40 - Connor Beasley

RACE SPOTLIGHT: Breeders' Cup Sprint winner BENTORNATO sets the standard here. The Jose D'Angelo trainee witnessed an unblemished 2025 and has been kept fresh for this assignment. The American contingent is further strengthened by the likes of two-time Shaheen placed Nakatomi and Lovesick Blues, both of whom were behind Bentornato in the Breeders' Cup Sprint. Nakatomi is of particular interest as he was third in this in 2024 and second last year showing his clear affirmation for the track. The local contingent is led by multiple Stakes winner El Naseebb who has been an absolute star for Musabbeh Al Mheiri. Team RRR Racing sends Mufasa who remains eluded off a victory this season but has consistently placed and has the services of Ryan Moore in the saddle. Previous winners of the race Tuz and Dark Saffron have both been on a comeback mission so far this season, but it should be no surprise to see them peak for this race.

Draw Advantage Data from October 2017

2025 Winner: SOUL RUSH (JPN) - Yasutoshi Ikee - Time: 1:45:84 - Cristian Demuro

RACE SPOTLIGHT: Godolphin superstar OMBUDSMAN highlights the Dubai Turf field for 2026. His two G1 victories in the UK last year, including wins in the Prince of Wales and the Juddmonte International stand in very good stead here. John and Thady Gosden are no strangers to success in this having won with Lord North for three consecutive years only recently. 2024 winner Facteur Cheval is back again and he looks to have retained his abilities having finished a good second in the Neom Turf Cup last out. Plenty of Carnival victors also in this including the rapidly progressing Fort George who finished second to the mighty Rebel's Romance on Super Saturday. Quddwah is unbeaten at this track and possesses a sharp turn of foot while Japan will be represented by Gaia Force who was second in the G1 Mile Championship last November.

2025 Winner: DANON DECILE (JPN) - Shogo Yasuda - Time: 2:27:05 - Keita Tosaki

RACE SPOTLIGHT: The star of the show here is the World's Best Racehorse CALANDAGAN for the prominent Aga Khan Studs. A beaten favorite last year, he has since gone on to win four Group 1s in three countries, including the Japan Cup. Ethical Diamond is his closest challenger on ratings. Last seen winning the Breeders' Cup Turf, he too has been a revelation through last year for legendary jumps trainer Willie Mullins graduating from handicap company to becoming a G1 winner. Meydan's fast turf should suit him immensely. Giavellotto makes his fourth appearance on World Cup night. The Marco Botti trainee was fifth in this last year and he, too, has seemed to progress since having finished fourth in the Arc De Triomphe last year. Last month's run in Qatar should have him fit and ready for this assignment.

DUBAI WORLD CUP

SPONSORED BY : EMIRATES AIRLINE

2025 Winner: HIT SHOW (USA) - Brad Cox - Time: 2:03:50 - Florent Geroux

RACE SPOTLIGHT: Japanese ace FOREVER YOUNG bids for a historic Saudi Cup-Dubai World Cup double. He was a beaten favorite last year, but he is back for redemption and has looked better than ever since. The World's Best Dirt Racehorse should once again be hard to beat. Last year's winner Hit Show also returns for Wathnan Racing who run two here. He sprung a huge shock last year and he looks set to run well again following a decisive victory in the Grade 3 Mineshaft in the States last month. Tumbarumba is the other one for the same connections. He finished a fast closing second to the reopposing Imperial Emperor in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge at Fashion Friday and ran a very respectable third to Forever Young in the Saudi Cup. This trip should be to his liking, and he can run into a place again. One of the more interesting runners here is Meydaan who glided to victory on first dirt try on Super Saturday and looks set for a big run here for local connections.
